Keeping Alumni Connected

New Ph.D. in Bible and Theology

AGTS has announced the addition of a Ph.D. in Bible and Theology (Ph.D./BT), which is slated to be offered in summer 2011. The new doctorate is designed to equip and empower Pentecostal scholars to lead the global church through creative teaching, writing and other missional endeavors. A highly selective program, it will challenge participants to integrate the highest levels of intellectual achievement with biblically focused, contextual praxis.

Six concentrations for the Ph.D./BT will be offered: Biblical Theology, Old Testament Studies, New Testament Studies, Systematic Theology, Historical Theology and Global Pentecostal Theology.

For more information, contact Dr. Charlie Self at 1-800-467-AGTS or send an email to cself@agts.edu.
