Faculty News

Dr. Jim Hernando ('78) has been invited by Bill Parks ('09) to participate in a pastor's enrichment and training seminar in Nicaragua, during Spring Study Week 2010. He will be doing a workshop on Bible study and interpretation.

Dr. Stephen Lim will speak at the December 20th Christmas service at Full Life Christian Center in San Francisco.

Dr. Angie Reid ('00) spoke to the Mothers of Preschoolers group (MOPS) at Ridgecrest Baptist Church in November on the topic of "Self-Worth and the Image of God." She also coordinated the first Women in Mental Health Luncheon for professionals in the Springfield area.

Three Faculty members published articles in the November-December issue of the AG Women in Ministry Webzine, the NETWORK:

Dr. Charlie & Kathleen
Self: "Celebrating Christ in a Multifaith World: Inviting Discovery and Doing Good Together."

Dr. Lois Olena ('06)
"Building Bridges to Your Jewish Neighbor at Hanukkah."

Dr. Ivan Satyavrata
"Building Bridges to Your Hindu Neighbor."

Dr. Mario Guerreiro will attend the Urbana '09 Conference Dec. 27-31 in St. Louis, MO. Since 1946, Urbana conferences provide college students the opportunity to hear and respond to God's global mission.

If you know someone who may be interested in attending AGTS, contact the Enrollment Office via the online form or call 1-800-467-2487.

Alumni Giving

There's still time to give a year end gift to the 2009 Alumni Pentecostal Leaders Scholarship Fund. 100% of your contribution goes toward student scholarships. Even a gift of $10 will help students needing funds for the Spring 2010 semester.

Your gift makes a difference!
