What's New?

AGTS Welcomes Dr. Ivan Satyavrata

Dr. Satyavrata is the 2009 J. Philip Hogan Professor of World Missions. He has served as professor, academic dean, and president of Southern Asia Bible College, the AG's premier educational institution in India. He presently pastors the Assemblies of God church in Calcutta, started by Mark Buntain, and serves as president of Buntain Theological College in Calcutta. He is also the administrator of schools for the AG Mission in Calcutta.

Dr. Satyavrata holds the Th.M. from Regent College in Vancouver, and a Ph.D. from The Oxford Center for Mission Studies in the U.K. He has published chapters and articles in scholarly journals, dictionaries and compilations. His book The Holy Spirit: Lord and Life-Giver is being published by InterVarsity Press in June 2009.

AGTS Presidential Evaluation Survey

AGTS has turned to In Trust Inc., the nonprofit organization specifically devoted to governance of graduate theological seminaries in the United States and Canada, for assistance in evaluating President Byron Klaus' presidency. The evaluation process begins by asking you to complete an online audit instrument that In Trust developed specifically for theological schools. You can access the online audit instrument by clicking here. We ask that you complete Presidential Evaluation Audit no later than July 13.

Find out how an investment in AGTS can pay you LIFETIME INCOME!

Alumni News

Dr. David Arnett ('76/'06) was named vice president for academic affairs at Central Bible College. An alumnus of CBC and AGTS, Arnett served as professor of Homiletics, Pastoral Ministries, Bible, and Theology for twelve years. David and his wife, Kathy, have pastored churches in New Mexico, Illinois, Wisconsin, and Missouri. He helped start six churches and a Christian academy. Currently he is leading a team in planting Carpenters House, a church with two campuses—in Willard and Conway, MO.

Everett and Evelyn McKinney ('77) taught at Eastern European Bible College in Romania and at Moscow Theological Institute in Russia. In Vladivostok, in addition to teaching extension courses, they had opportunity to minister in several churches, to speak in a Presbyterian seminary and a Bible institute.

Saturnino Gonzalez, ('84) senior pastor of Iglesia El Calvario (AG) in Orlando, FL, and superintendent of Southeastern Spanish District, was appointed national commissioner of the Hispanic Pentecostal Congress. The Congress is subsidiary of America's largest Hispanic Christian organization, The National Hispanic Christian Leadership Conference (NHCLC). The National Hispanic Pentecostal Congress will host its first summit on October 27 in Orlando, FL. For more information, go to <http://hispanicevangelicals.com>.

Liisa Kelly ('85) completed the Master of Library Science degree through East Carolina University's (ECU) online program. Liisa serves as an AGUSM missionary with Native American Bible College which is currently working toward accreditation.

Eugene and Carolyn Hunt ('86) braved the "swine flu" scare and traveled to Guatemala on May 1st, where twelve Facultad students from three countries also showed up to study "History & Literature of the Old Testament."

Tom Vaughn ('93) passed away in May following knee replacement surgery.

Dr. Mikeuel E. Peterson ('95) received his Doctor of Missiology from Asbury Theological Seminary in Wilmore, KY in May. He serves as a missionary with AGWM and recently accepted the presidency of the Caribbean School of Theology that works with both undergraduate and graduate programs.

Alan ('01) and Nancy (Creager) ('94) Tofflemire welcomed Andrew Caleb in May.

Rev. Ronald E. Burnett ('96), went to be with his Savior in May after a long illness. Pastor of Bethel AG in Lackawanna for ten years, Ron had retired from dairy farming in Schoharie County, NY. He was most recently a member of First Assembly of God in Niagara Falls, where he served as lay leader and teacher.

Ron was passionate about home and foreign missions, having spent time in New Mexico and Lithuania.

Christopher McGough ('04) joined the Central Bible College faculty as an assistant professor of Youth Ministries. Chris comes from Colorado Christian University where he served as associate director of residence life. Previously, he worked as a residence director at Evangel University and served as a youth pastor in Louisiana.

Nathan and Tausha Bacorn ('08) welcomed Benjamin Nathan Bacorn in April.

Sarah Cotton ('09) married Matthew Rutledge on June 6th at Central Assembly, Springfield, MO.

Nate and Sarah Moore ('09) married on May 2nd in Springfield, MO.
