

Faculty Guests for Summer 2005

Dr. Murray Dempster (Ph.D. in Social Ethics, U. of Southern California) is the president of Vanguard University in Costa Mesa, CA. He is the co-author of Salt and Light: Evangelical Political Thought in Modern America. His most recent co-edited anthology, The Globalization of Pentecostalism: A Religion Made to Travel, was selected by the International Bulletin of Missionary Research as one of the most significant books on church mission in 1999. He will be teaching the course PHIM 640 Special Studies: The Church & Contemporary Moral Issues, June 27-July 1.

Dr. Wave Nunnally (Ph.D., Hebrew Union College) is a Professor of Biblical Studies at Evangel University. Having lived in Israel for several years, his abilities in both biblical and modern Hebrew are outstanding, and he is widely recognized as one of the premier Hebrew teachers in the Assemblies of God. Last year Hebrew Union College-Jewish Institute of Religion (HUC-JIR) awarded him the Founders Medallion in appreciation for meritorious service to the school as president of the alumni council and as a member of its Board of Governors. (He was the first Gentile to ever serve in that capacity.) He will be teaching Hebrew 1A and 1B this summer at AGTS.

Rev. Harry Morin (M.A.C.M, AGTS) was a missionary for 15 years in Bangladesh and 5 years in the Philippines before taking up his current ministry at the Center for Ministry to Muslims in 1995. In that ministry he has applied his extensive experience in Muslim contexts to preparing Christian ministers in more than a dozen countries on five continents. Given the current world crisis in the relationship between Muslims and non-Muslims, students should strongly consider taking Morin's course, MCSM 545 Introduction to Islam, this summer.
