COURSE SYLLABUS

COURSE DESCRIPTION

The Ministry Development Seminar is a five-day learning experience for the participants in the MA in Christian Ministries degree program designed to integrate the spiritual, psychological, and professional dimensions of their life and ministry.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

Upon completion of the Ministry Development Seminar course, the participants should be able to:

1. Implement a strategy for integrating the disciplines into their spiritual formation process.
2. Demonstrate a growing awareness of their own psychological make-up and how this interacts with their spirituality and ministry.
3. Clearly understand and assess their unique design for ministry including areas of ministry passions, life experiences, personal strengths and limitations as they relate to enhancing ministry effectiveness.

TEXTBOOKS

Required Reading:

Bradford, Mark. Temperament in Ministry. Springfield, MO: Self-published, 2000. (This notebook will also include the printed results of your personality assessment tests.)

Malphurs, Aubrey. Maximizing Your Effectiveness: How to Discover and Develop Your Divine Design. Grand Rapids: Baker Book House, 1995.

McIntosh, Gary L., and Samuel D. Rima, Sr. Overcoming the Dark Side of Leadership: The Paradox of Personal Dysfunction. Grand Rapids: Baker Book House, 1997.

Willard, Dallas. The Spirit of the Disciplines: Understanding How God Changes Lives. New York: HarperCollins Publishers, 1991.

COURSE METHODOLOGY

Lectures, readings, small group activities, writing assignments, and assessment instruments will be utilized to achieve the course objectives.

COURSE OUTLINE

- I. Introduction and description of MACM degree
- II. Personality Profile Assessments
- III. The Nature of Spiritual Formation
- IV. Maximizing Your Divine Design

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

A. Pre-Session

1. Read all assigned texts.
2. Write a two-page reflection paper (approximately 500 words) for each of the Malphurs, McIntosh/Rima, and Willard texts.
