COURSE SYLLABUS

COURSE DESCRIPTION

An analysis of communication theory and the inherent problems encountered by a communicator attempting meaningful dialogue in a cross-cultural setting. Variations in basic values are seen as factors in interpersonal relations.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

After completing this course students should be able to:

1. Demonstrate how cultural variables influence communication.
2. Prepare strategies to facilitate intercultural relationship formation.
3. Summarize intercultural skills applied to adaptation, relationship formation, ambiguity reduction, adjusting to differing communication styles, reducing conflict and creating social influence.
4. Design pedagogical methods for the development of positive intercultural relations..
