METHODOLOGY and REQUIREMENTS

1. Observe the reading and study directives in the course outline. Reading should be done in advance for the particular object of study for the day. This enhances learning and class discussion.
2. This course will focus on reading the entire New Testament and the textbook. An ample number of articles and books are in the bibliography for the benefit and interest of the student and should be consulted along the way. We will work our way through the material, interpreting it as we go. Hermeneutics are important for the proper development of theology. Remember, though, that theology is more than hermeneutics and interpreting individual texts. Theology is synthetic in nature.

3. Three biblical theology papers are required. The first will focus on a topic from the Gospels; the second on a topic from the Pauline Epistles, and the third on a topic from Hebrews to Revelation section. Each paper will be done in acceptable AGTS style, conforming to Turabian's 6th edition. Each paper will be from 9-10 pages in length. Paper # 1 is due February _6; # 2 March_13; and #3 on April_24.
4. On the day of the scheduled final exam, a one page brief report signifying (signature) and noting that the student has read the NT and the textbook.
5. Absences—consult the Student Handbook—should be guarded carefully in light of block classes, etc.

GRADING PROCEDURE

The student's grade will be derived from the following procedure:

100 points First Paper
100 points Second Paper
100 points Third Paper

300 points possible

The grade will come from the appropriate percentages of the total possible:

95-100 %	A	80-83 %	B-
90-94 %	A-	77-79 %	C+
87-89 %	B+	74-76 %	C
84-86 %	B	70-73 %	C-
