METHODOLOGY

The format of the course will consist of lectures, class discussions, multi-media presentations, homework assignments, and examinations.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

1. Professionalism and courtesy in regard to attendance is expected.
2. Active participation in class discussions is expected. Students who attempt to monopolize discussions will be asked to limit their contributions to class discussions.
3. Completion of all readings as assigned is expected.
4. Completion of all papers and assignments on time is expected. (Late papers/assignments will be lowered one letter grade for each date late.)
5. Completion of two comprehensive examinations based on the assigned readings, lectures, class discussions, and multi-media presentations is expected.
6. Student will write one major research paper on a mental disorder. Paper will be a minimum of 13-15 pages. Paper should cite twelve or more key references in the paper.

(Text book does not count as a reference.) Prominent names in the field should be cited. The paper must be well written, researched, and strict adherence to APA will be expected. Topic of paper must be approved by professor. Paper is due on April 5th, at 6:00 PM. Paper will be reduced a letter grade for each day it is late. Grades will assigned as following:

- B Above average paper
- C Meets basic requirements
- F Fails to meet graduate level quality

Following are areas to address in the research paper.

- a. Description of symptomology—physical, emotional, behavioral, indicators
- b. Significant factors in differential diagnosis.
- c. Latest research on disorder
- d. Possible etiological factors and assessment issues.
- e. Preferred therapeutic interventions of treatment.
- f. Basic treatment recommendations and prognosis for recovery.

GRADING PROCEDURE

The final course grade will be determined based on the combined scores on all exams, homework assignments, and papers. Grades will be calculated by dividing the total number of points accumulated by the total possible points. Attendance and class participation will be considered in cases of borderline grades. It is hoped that students will not miss any class sessions. When it is necessary to be absent, students should send an e-mail to the professor prior to the class session if possible to maintain communication regarding material covered in class. Excessive absences may result in the student being dropped from the course.

Professional and Ethical Conduct: Students will conduct themselves in this course as professionals, preparing projects as directed and in a timely manner. They will complete assignments and exam in an ethical manner. Plagiarism, the presentation of another's work as your own, will be considered a serious violation of the Code of Ethics and may result in failure for the course.

Disability Accommodation: Any student who because of a disability may need special arrangements or accommodation to meet the requirements of this course is encouraged to see me before or after class to discuss accommodations.

CELL PHONE POLICE

Please turn off cell phones before the beginning of class. Leaving class to answer a call disrupts the class and distracts from your classroom participation. Arrangements for your personal communication need to be made before or after class and not during class. Please do not talk on the phone during class.
