METHODOLOGY

The course will make use of lectures by the professor, class discussion, reading and analytical writing assignments. The primary focus of the course will be to chronologically survey Israel's history while examining the key theological theme of redemption.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

1. Attendance: The student is expected to attend all class sessions. Absences should be for extreme circumstances only.
2. Reading: The student should complete the reading assignments as they are due (see the Course Outline above) and submit on the last evening of class a report detailing all readings on a form to be supplied by the professor. Failure to complete the reading assignments will reduce the final grade for the course.
3. Presentation Reports: Each student will prepare a written paper for sessions two through five – a total of four. The papers should be three to four double-spaced pages in length and may be a basis for discussion or a possible oral report (depending on class size and quality of the papers) to one or more sessions of the class beginning with Unit 2. Each of the papers is to be written on one of the prophets listed below under “Report Topics.” Each paper is to address the following: (1) authorship (including biographical information concerning the prophet, if such can be known), (2) date of composition (including historical situation), (3) key theological themes and (4) a brief (one paragraph) well-reasoned application to contemporary Christian life and ministry. Due beginning of each class session (2-5).
4. Final Paper: One of the four presentation reports must be expanded into a research paper of not less than 10 pages, employing not less than ten sources and written in standard Turabian form. Note: This makes five total papers. The final paper is due at the beginning of the last class session.
5. Final Test: A comprehensive final examination will be given at the end of the last class session. This examination will focus primarily on the class lectures.

Possible Presentation Report Topics:

In addition to (or expanding upon) the topics that may be derived from the outline and objectives of Units 2-5, the student may wish to consider the following for a presentation report:

Unit 2 Amos, Hosea, Isaiah, Micah

Unit 3 Jonah, Obadiah, Nahum, Joel

Unit 4 Jeremiah, Zephaniah, Ezekiel, Habbakkuk

Unit 5 Daniel, Haggai, Zechariah, Malachi

Late work submitted beyond agreed-upon dates, if accepted, may be penalized by one letter grade per week late. All assigned work for the course must be submitted for the student to receive a passing grade for the course. The grade of I (incomplete) will be granted only for extenuating circumstances upon the written request of the student. Except in the case of severe extenuating circumstances the course grade will be reduced by one letter.
