CLASS AND GRADING PROCEDURE:

1. Course grades will be given based on completed work as follows:

Textbook assignments	30 points
Class session work & attendance	10 points
Project	60 points
1. Students are expected to actively participate in classroom discussions and activities. Each student is a valuable resource to other students and the professor. Peer learning is vital for effective personal growth.
2. It is important for all to model Christian integrity and show respect and support for others in the class. The class provides a wonderful opportunity to demonstrate Christian character and relationships that are the foundation of all true leadership.
3. Students are expected to be present and on time for each class session.
4. All major assignments are to be typed and represent quality graduate level work.
5. All assignments are to be turned in: 1) without any cover, 2) stapled, and 3) with the student's name and the course number and name on the first page in the top right corner or on a title page.
6. Late work for any reason will receive a lower grade.

NOTE: Work received after the post-session due date specified in the syllabus will result in a change of grade fee ($15.00) being charged, even when an extension has been granted.
