

ASSEMBLIES OF GOD THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

THE 633 Divine Healing

James H. Railey

Summer 2002

COURSE SYLLABUS

COURSE DESCRIPTION

The healing ministry of God in today's world will be considered. The course will survey the biblical and theological perspectives and the history of divine healing in the Church. Special emphasis will be placed upon the role of the doctrine and practice of divine healing in the Pentecostal/Charismatic movements in the twentieth century.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

Upon the successful completion of this course, the student should be able:

1. To understand better the biblical teachings relating to divine healing
2. To analyze the popular approaches to healing both within and outside of the modern church, and to be able to compare and contrast these approaches with sound Scriptural teaching.
3. To examine, develop, and/or reformulate one's own personal theology of healing and suffering in accord with a correct interpretation of Scripture.
4. To be prepared better to minister to those who are in need of healing, as well as to those who continue to suffer.
5. To develop a practical and theological approach to the ministry of divine healing in the local church.

TEXTBOOKS

COURSE OUTLINE

1. Introduction
2. Biblical Teaching About Healing
3. Healing in the Christian Church
4. The Modern Healing Movement
5. Problems with Healing
6. Constructing a Doctrine of Divine Healing
7. Implementing a Doctrine of Divine Healing

METHODOLOGY

The primary method of instruction will be the lecture, with ample time devoted to the discussion of ideas and issues germane to the course. The student will be expected to take notes consistently during the sessions.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

1. The student is expected to attend all class sessions. Absences should be for extreme circumstances only. The limits established by the Seminary will be observed. (“Barring a serious medical emergency, credit cannot be granted for courses in which a student has been absent beyond the equivalent of more than 2 weeks . . .” Catalog 70).
2. The student is expected to submit a 3-5-page critique of each of the assigned texts. They will be due according to the following schedule: July 3 – Bosworth; July 5 – Kydd; July 8 – Kraft; July 10 – Wimber/Springer; July 12 – Pearson. The critiques should reflect graduate level interaction with the argumentation and positions taken by the authors.
3. There will be a take-home final exam, due on Wednesday, July 17, 2002. The exam will be essay in nature and designed to allow the student to reflect his/her experience and learning during the class.

GRADING PROCEDURE

The final grade will be determined as follows:

Book Critiques	66%
Final Exam	34%

Grades are recorded and averaged on the basis of the following grade scale: A=12; A-=11; B+=10; B=9; B-=8; C+=7; C=6; C-=5; D+=4; D=3; D-=2; F=1. Classroom participation will also be considered in the assignment of the final grade.

To receive a passing grade for the course all work must be submitted. The grade of I (Incomplete) may be granted only for extenuating circumstances upon the request of the student. Except in the case of severe extenuating circumstances the course grade will be reduced by one letter grade.
